And for the Democracy.

The Sun believes that the campaign for the election of a democratic Congress in 1890 and a cratic President in 1892 should begin on or accut the fourth of next March. The Sun will be on hand at the beginning and until the end of the most interesting and Important political conflict sined the war, doing its honest utmost, as ever, to secure the triumph of the democratic party and the permanent supremacy of the principles held by Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden.

The great fact of the year is the return to absolute power of the common enemy of all good democrats—the political organization for whose overthrow The Sun fought at the front for fifteen years, the memorable years of Grant and the Fraud Hayes, and Garield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy that democrats now confrent, and he will be intreached in the same strong position. It has been carried once by brave and hopeful fighting. Do you not believe with The Sun that the thing can be done again? Wait and see! And for the Democracy.

with THE SUN that the thing can be done again? Wait and see!
The hope of the democracy is in the loyal efforts of a united press, cherishing no memories of past differences in non-essentials, forgetting everything but the lessons of experience, and that victory is a duty.

Probably you know THE SUN already as a newspaper which gets all the news and prints it in incomparably interesting shape; which chronicles facts as they occur and tells the truth about men and events with absolute factlessness, making the completest and most entertaining journal published anywhere on earth; and which sells its opinions only to its subscribers and purchasers at two cents a copy—on Sundays four cents. If you do cents a copy—on Sundays four cents. If you do not know THE SUN, send for it and learn what a would rful thing it is to be in the sunshine.

It is and will continue to be the greatest and cheapest family journal in the United States. The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring ovents. In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arens has been followed by a change of administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties.

ted to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties.

Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titanic war the world has ever seen. The Heraid's news-gathering machinery is unequalled. Its correspondents dot the habitable globe. Nothing can escape their vigilance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the Heraid's readers.

All the news of America will be found each week in the Heraid, while its foreign department will contain a panorama of the Old World, fisshed under the sea over the Commercial cables.
